

"If we are to effectively confront the ever-increasing dehumanization and militarization of our society, activism around prisons needs to be enlivened now more than ever."

"WITH THE POWER OF JUSTICE IN OUR EYES..."

A HANDBOOK
FOR EDUCATORS AND ACTIVISTS
ON THE CRISIS IN PRISONS
edited and with introductions by elihu rosenblatt coordinator, prison activist resource center
berkeley ca 1994
(title from "Resistance at Lexington" by Laura Whitehorn (p.12))

Published by:
Prison Activist Resource Center
P.O. Box 339 Berkeley CA 94710
WWW.PRISONACTIVIST.ORG

e-mail: parc@prisonactivist.org

from The Handbook:

table of contents

Preface

- > Section I: Overview
- > Section II: AIDS in Prison: A Public Health Crisis
- > Section III: Women in Prison
- > Section IV: The Death Penalty is Dead Wrong
- > Section V: Justice and Freedom for all Political Prisoners and POW's
- > Section VI: The Nationwide Lockdown: Control Unit Prisons on the Rise
- > Editor's Concluding Remarks
- > Notes
- > Appendix A: Examples of Recent Action/Education Campaigns (flyers, leaflets, fact sheets)
- > Appendix B: Suggestions for Action
- > Appendix C: Resource Guide (readings, organizations, periodicals)

From the Preface:

"It is clear that the necessary changes in the system of imprisonment (and indeed, its eventual abolition) in the US will not come from the benevolent initiative of government officials. Those changes will be forced upon the system by prisoners organizing and by an angry, educated populace. This handbook, then, is one building block in the overall work of raising consciousness, of sparking fires."

EXAMPLES:
Solidarity with Political Prisoners