

CAPITALISM

Capitalism is a system of domination based on class in which the ruling class owns and controls the resources of the society.

Capitalism creates wealth and power for the ruling class through the exploitation of land, waged and unwaged labor, and the oppression of non-ruling class people.